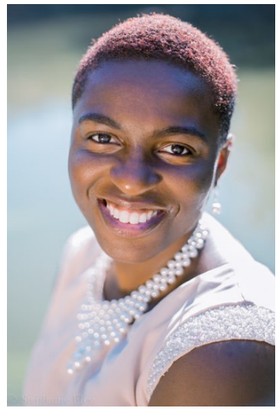
Waccamaw Library Photographers of the Month

Pawleys Island resident Chetta D. will share her tissue photography—a series that brings light and awareness to the variations of visual impairment.



Georgetonian Sandra Barnes will exhibit her stunning nature photographs. Barnes developed her eye not only in the Lowcountry but in Arkansas, Missouri and New Mexico.

Murrells Inlet resident June Jordan combines her skill in photography and graphic arts with a passion for history, the arts and environment. The result: an eye-catching series sure to delight the viewer.
