

Photography Contest Winner Display

At Georgetown Library's
Heritage Center
405 Cleland Street
Through June 30th

The winning photography from the Winyah Rivers Foundation Annual Photo Contest is on display! Come see some amazing Lowcountry photography, pristinely enlarged and beautifully framed. The Waccamaw Riverkeepers are a grassroots organization whose members support the mission of protecting the rivers in the great watershed that empties into Winyah Bay at Georgetown, South Carolina, including the Waccamaw River, the Pee Dee and Little Pee Dee Rivers, the Black River, the Lynches River and the Sampit River.
