

Talented ten- and eleven-year olds from Andrews Elementary got the Georgetown and Andrews Libraries into the holiday spirit with a great singing performance that featured Christmas classics, sweet slower songs, even a hand-clapping spiritual. Look how cute the kids were!

