Fall Festival of Financial Fitness

The Georgetown County Library invites everyone to its Fall Festival on Saturday, November 9th from noon to 2 p.m. at the Beck Recreation Center on Church Street. "It's going to be so much fun for all ages," enthused library director Dwight McInvaill. "Best of all, absolutely everything is free!" "We'll have fair booths," said McInvaill, "filled with great information and giveaways whether you're looking to stretch your dollars, find a new job, repair your credit, or save for the future."

Peter Fletcher Concert

On Saturday, March 22, from 7 to 8:30 p.m., classical guitarist Peter Fletcher will perform in Georgetown at a site to be announced in our next newsletter. During the course of his more than 30-year career, this 46-year-old musician has played five times during the last decade at Carnegie Hall and has been featured in cultural venues nationwide including Lincoln Center, the Chicago Cultural Center, the George Eastman House, and on media outlets including National Public Radio and affiliates, Turner Broadcasting System, Fox, NBC, and many other radio and television appearances. He has also performed internationally. Fletcher carries on the Segovia tradition of expanding the comparatively small classical guitar repertoire by transcribing from other instruments and by commissioning new music. Further details about the concert will be forthcoming early in 2014. Please stay tuned!
