Letters from Iwo Jima

Author talks about father and war that inspired his book

On Thursday, June 4th, from 5:30 – 7 pm, at the Georgetown Library on Cleland Street, author Bill Doar will talk about his new book, Letters from Iwo Jima.

Bill Doar is a native Georgetownian and has practiced law in Georgetown and Pawleys Island since 1962. His father, W.W. Doar, was commanding officer of LSM-60, which landed Marines and their equipment on Iwo Jima during its invasion. Letters from Iwo Jima is a collection of handwritten letters from Lt. Doar that give a glimpse into one mind of “the Greatest Generation,” during its biggest challenge. Letters from Iwo Jima is the fifth book authored by Doar.

The book talk is free and open to the public. For more information, call librarian Patti Burns at (843) 545-3388.
