

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate release

February 3, 2015

Contact: Trudy Bazemore, Library Assistant Director, (843) 545-3303

Lovely Offering on Valentines Day
Local author signs book at Georgetown Library

Georgetown author, theologian and evangelist Frankie W. Simmons will sign her new book, "Love and Romance in the Christian Marriage," at Georgetown Library on February 14th from 1 – 2 p.m.

"God makes us accountable for the truth and for being who we are as husbands and as wives," Simmons said. "My book seeks to encourage us to do better and be better men and women of God."

Simmons has a master's degrees in theology with an emphasis in Christian counseling from Cathedral Bible College in Myrtle Beach. She received her initial training in the Word and ministry at Soul Saving Station for Every Nation of the Christ Crusaders of America, International, under the leadership of Bishop Richard S. Watkins. She has served the community for years through outreach ministry and victim's advocacy. She and her husband live in Georgetown.