Genealogy Workshops planned at Waccamaw Library

Want to explore your family history, but not sure how to start? Waccamaw Library is hosting a two-part genealogy series that can get you on the right path.

Finding Your Family History will be held on November 3 and 4, from 4:30 – 5:30 pm in the library's DeBordieu Auditorium, 41 St. Paul Place, Pawleys Island. The workshops will be led by genealogist Sandra M. Barnes, who has been involved in ancestry research for 30+ years. In fact, Barnes loves the topic so much, she coordinates an ongoing genealogy group at the Waccamaw Library that meets every third Monday of the month from 9:30 – 11:30 am.

“I was actually on a genealogy research trip when I stopped in Georgetown in 2006,” said Barnes, a retired teacher from South Arkansas. “I loved the area so much, I immediately decided to make it my home when I retired.”

The workshops are free and open to all. Registration is not required, but you are encouraged to email to help gauge attendance: sbremner@gtcounty.org.
