The Friends of the Waccamaw Library invite you to their 7th Annual Student Poetry contest on Thursday, April 30th, at 7 p.m. in the new Waccamaw Library Auditorium at 41 St. Paul Place in Pawleys Island.

There will be a distinguished panel on hand to read selections from the unsigned poems and pick five winners. As in past years, the competition is stiff, with an impressive array of poetry from bright teen minds all over the Waccamaw Neck.
