

Georgetown County Library Services
Since 1799

For Immediate Release

Halls will soon be decked with boughs of holly! The Friends of the Georgetown Library will again sponsor their annual Yuletide Tour of Homes. This year's event is planned for Saturday, December 6, 2014 from 1pm – 6pm and will also feature several of the beautiful churches that grace Georgetown's Historic District. Offered for touring will be six residences adorned in holiday finery, four notable church sanctuaries, a beautiful house museum, and a stately refurbished site that will serve as a refreshment location. The tour is self-guided and maps will be provided.

Tour locations include:

- Hamilton Home – St. James Street
- Jayroe / Waldroup Home – St. James Street
- Young Home – Prince Street
- Reynolds Home – East Bay Street
- Kludt Home – East Bay Street
- Call Home – Front Street
- Stewart-Parker House – Front Street
- Prince George Episcopal Church - Broad Street
- Bethesda Baptist Church – Wood Street
- Bethel AME Church – Broad Street
- Duncan Methodist Church – Highmarket Street
- Winyah Auditorium – Highmarket Street – (Refreshment Site)

Tickets are $20.00 for Friends of the Library members and $25.00 for those who do not belong to the organization. Tickets may be purchased in advance at the following locations:

- Georgetown Library - 405 Cleland Street
- Waccamaw Library - 24 Commerce Lane

What a great way to start the holiday season, and all proceeds fund future programming.

For further information, please contact Trudy Bazemore at the library at: (843) 545-3303.