

Nationally known performer Natalie Daise in

Becoming Harriet Tubman

The 60 minute theatrical storytelling presentation allows the audience to follow the development of little Araminta Ross as she becomes the iconic heroine known to all as Harriet Tubman. Five characters, all played by Natalie Daise, share their perspective on the events that shaped Harriet into the woman she became. Coded message songs, as well as a haunting melody by Kim and Reggie Harris, add texture to her unique and uplifting story.

Free and open to the public

Friday May 20, 2016 at 6pm

at the Waccamaw Neck Branch Library

Sponsored by Friends of the Waccamaw Library

Call Amy or Holly at 843-545-3349 or email aking@gtcounty.org.