

Waccamaw Artist of the Month

MARCH

M.P. "Squeaky" Swenson

Swenson is the publisher of the Coastal Observer. She has been painting for over 25 years and has studied with nationally known artists from all over the country.

Her work is in private and corporate collections here and in Europe. She has won numerous awards including acceptance twice in the S.C. Watercolor Annual juried show, first place awards in Waccamaw Arts & Crafts show, multiple first place awards in the Old Santee Canal show and Florence Museum Bankers Show, 2nd place.

Her most recent series features landscapes of the coastal areas of the Carolinas that she calls her "baby blanket" series. Her intent with this new series is to create paintings that wrap the viewer in soft colors that nurture and rejuvenate the human spirit.

For details, email sbremner@gtcountry.org

