

Author's Table

Discussions of great new reads—with the authors themselves.

FREE! All events are in the new Waccamaw Library Auditorium, 41 St. Paul Place, Pawleys Island

October 20, 5:30—7 pm

Mary Anne Bendetto

Mary Anne is a certified life writing instructor who will share tips from her popular book: 7 Easy Steps to Memoir Writing. She's a Murrells Inlet resident who loves the local beaches and golfing, when she's not traveling to teach workshops on memoir writing.

She is also the author of novels Eye-lash and Never Say Perfect, the hilarious "what not to do" travelogue From Italy with Love and Limoncello, and the adorable little guide Write Your Pet's Life Story in 7 Easy Steps.

October 30, 4:30—6 pm

T. Allen Winn

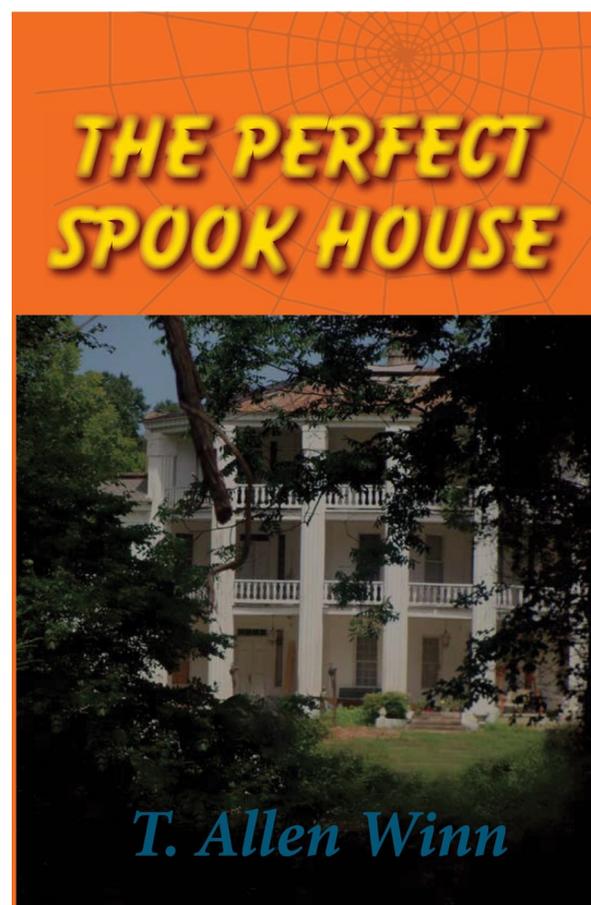

T. Allen Winn is a 'born and raised' southerner, the byproduct of the good ole Palmetto State and historical Abbeville. Sarcasm, wit, with a smidgen of southern swagger has influenced the ole writing style. He and his wife, Judy, have enjoyed the sun, sea and sand of the Grand Strand since 2005.

He published his first book, Road Rage, at age 58, and so began the Detective Trudy Wagner series, the backdrop, Horry County. North of the Border is the second in the series. Two others are written but not yet published.

He has also written six other books, including two memoirs that give readers a taste of Southern life and also deal with loss and family ties. His seventh book, Lou Who, will be released this month.

In honor of the near-Halloween date, Mr. Winn will share The Perfect Spook House, a riveting mystery set in his hometown Abbeville. In it, eleven teenagers search for answers nearly twenty years after a life changing incident in an alleged haunted house.

P.S.: Come in costume, and receive a prize!

T. Allen Winn