

Book Talk

“Letters from Iwo Jima” by Bill Doar

June 4th, 4—6 pm
Georgetown Library

Bill Doar is a native Georgetownian and has practiced law in Georgetown and Pawleys Island since 1962. His father, W.W. Doar, was commanding officer of LSM-60, which landed Marines and their equipment on Iwo Jima during its invasion. Letters from Iwo Jima is a collection of handwritten letters from Lt. Doar that give a glimpse into one mind of “the Greatest Generation,” during its biggest challenge.

