

Celebrating South Carolina's Gullah Geechee cultural and spiritual expression
An Artist Workshop: Designed for Gullah Geechee
Residents Who Practice Traditional and Contemporary Art

6:00 - 9:00 pm, Monday, November 10, 2014

Please join us! Space is limited to the first 30 registrants.
Georgetown County Library, Main Branch
405 Cleland Street, Georgetown, SC 29440

Calling Gullah Geechee Artists! Are you a basket maker? a dancer? a poet? a chef?
a storyteller? Do you need to update your press kit or promotional materials?

You're invited to a three-hour workshop on creating basic support materials to promote your art work. From resumes to artist statements, from press releases to working with local media—join this special event to refine and update how you market your work and connect with your community.

Register by emailing Susan DuPlessis at sduplessis@arts.sc.gov or call (803) 734-8693 and provide your name, art form, phone number, and email address

Facilitated by award-winning journalist Kerri Forrest

Kerri Forrest (pictured left) is director of Institutional Advancement for the American College of the Building Arts. After a distinguished career in Washington, D.C., she returned to her native Charleston in 2010 and has become quickly active in South Carolina's arts and cultural scene. Owner of Social Creative Media Consulting, she also chairs the speaker selection for TEDx Charleston.

