

EVENTS

SEPTEMBER—DECEMBER

2013

Senior Scholars is proudly presented by the Friends of the Georgetown Library.

Want to receive weekly Scholar's notices via email? Email Patti Burns pburns@gtcounty.org

Meetings are on Tuesday mornings at 10 a.m. at the Georgetown Library Auditorium on Cleland Street.

September 17th

Treasures from Brookgreen Plantation's Gullah-Geechee Street

Susan Hoffer McMillan will describe a six-month, detailed excavation on part of the sweeping property that uncovered wonderful artifacts from Brookgreen Garden's African-American past.

September 24th

Chronicles of an Irreverent Reverend:

Joe Baroody—a man who has seen it all—will recount his view that “what goes wrong can make you better” through hilarious experiences as a pastoral counselor.

October 1st

Views of Great Community Learning

Throughout the winter months, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Coastal Carolina University offers new courses beginning each week at three outreach centers, including the Waccamaw Higher Education Center in Litchfield. Linda Ketron will showcase this chance to open your mind and heart to great educational opportunities.

October 8th

Stories of Inspiring Hope and Help

Sharon Thomas of Helping Hands will share ways that folks at Helping Hands are aiding our neediest citizens, from free emergency dentistry to financial fitness classes.

October 15th

No Program—Setting up for the Library Book Sale

But that doesn't mean you can't still come to the library and find a great read! Our book sale will take place Wednesday, October 16th from 9 am—7 pm; Thursday, October 17th, from 9 am—7 pm; and Friday, October 18th, from 9 am—6 pm.

October 22nd

Homes for Earned Happiness

Ophelia Snow, volunteer coordinator for Habitat for Humanity Georgetown, will recount how the act of building good homes can encourage the development of productive citizens in decent communities.

October 29th

Resources for Vibrant Civic Growth

Frances Bunnelle believed that people should care for one another according to their means. She quietly gave assistance to the disenfranchised and the disadvantaged. Frances B. Bunnelle Foundation representative Geales Sands will focus on the ways the group maintains that legacy, with grants to people and organizations who help our community thrive.

November 5th

No Program—Election Day!

November 12th

Travels in Africa and Adventures in Writing

Werner Hoppe will illustrate how a globe-trotting past, from Germany to West Africa to the US, has colored and informed his prolific work as a novelist.

November 19th

Adventures with Technological Toys

Donald Dennis will dazzle us with the near-magical, ever-changing world of iPad apps. If you like what you see, this is a great introduction to an upcoming round of free classes right here at the library!

December 3rd

Holiday Baking and Food Safety

Staff from Clemson Extension will share tasteful tips for the holiday season, making your delicious dishes not only colorful but healthful and safe.

December 10th

Initiatives to Empower Lifelong Health

Marilynn Lance Robb will update us on how easy access to medical knowledge is transforming lives in rural Georgetown County.