

Preserving your Past

All workshops will be held from 4:30—5:30 at the Waccamaw Library, 41 St. Paul Place, Pawleys Island

Saving Your Family Photos

Tuesday October 20th

Julie Warren Presenter

Do you have shoeboxes full of family photos and you just don't know what to do with them? Want to digitize but not sure how? We'll discuss digital preservation and how to back up your historic bounty.

Preserving Old or Damaged Documents

Thursday, October 22nd

Julie Warren, Presenter

If you had documents or photos damaged in the recent flood, or have fragile items that need better storage, this is the workshop for you.

Our scheduled genealogy workshops are postponed because the presenter is assisting with flood recovery at County Emergency Management. We will reschedule as soon as the presenter is available.
